Adventures of Salvador - Retroman

Urban Punk-Surf-Rock from the heart of the north west of England. Adventures of Salvador release the first single from their second album "Welcome To Our Village" with "Retroman", a bass driven riff monster of a tune. Produced and recorded at Big City Jacks Recording Studio in Bury, Greater Manchester by Tony Long the band have hit a new creative peak with their intense and hypnotic sounds. This is enhanced with stunning artwork from Jack Jerz.

The single will be launched as part of the Manchester Meltdown Festival at The Peer Hat, Faraday Street, Manchester on 9th January 2019. This is a digital download release via Bandcamp and distributed to the major online stores via AWAL. Pre-release will be available from 31st December at www.germanshepherdrecords.bandcamp.com

Adventures of Salvador comprise Nigel Beck - Bass and Vocals, Dave "Loop-aznavour" - Vocal, Keyboards and Theremin, Mark Berry - Guitar and Mike Smith - Drums. They have built a growing reputation as a must see live band across Greater Manchester and beyond.

"An outrageously confident slice of modern Rock & Roll. The best thing I have heard in a very long time" - Stephen Doyle, Salford City Radio

"Are you sure this isn't some long-lost collaboration when Mark E Smith jammed with the Cramps and the B-52's??? It sounds ace - Grim Up North Sea Surf Punk!" Ged Babey, Louder Than War

"The Salvadors reach new heights with an audacious blues soaked rumble through the urban hills above the Manchester Conurbation" Aural Delights Blog

"Fuzzy surf rock riffs slapped in the face by a punk in a ginnel! Northern to the core, it's retro...man". The Rock Fairy

"Where retro and modern collide . A catchy, infectious, ear worm that I couldn't wait to listen to a 2nd and 3rd time." Tarzan Dan Q107FM
